

Development Framework Introduction

Based on the foundation established by the Community Perspectives and Policy Plan, this chapter outlines the framework for guiding and directing future community growth and public improvements. The Development Framework section gives attention to the natural environment, land use, transportation, and community facilities. Through this format, the City provides itself with a comprehensive perspective and decision-making instrument to guide community growth through the year 2040.

