

#4 'Riverdale'

Artist

Name: Tim Nelsen

Phone: [REDACTED]

Email: nelsenarts@outlook.com , nelsenstudios2020@gmail.com

Address: [REDACTED]

Website: instagram: @nelsenstudios

Personal Statement

"I create art for one reason, it makes me happy. The materials I use and the subjects I choose all speak to me on some level. From finding materials to sketching and creating the final product, the entire process is something I enjoy."

Sculpture

Title: 'Riverdale'

Description: 'Riverdale' is my interpretation of a mule deer. The piece is constructed entirely from recycled materials including old tool boxes, license plates, braided steel cable, assorted gears and framing squares. The horns, the name 'Riverdale' and most of the yellow pieces used are all taken from a 55 gallon barrel. Vintage sad irons are also inset on each side of the sculpture.

Dimensions: 3'h x 3'w x 18"d

Weight: 100 lbs

Materials: Made of recycled steel & found objects

Installation Requirements:

Can be bolted to concrete pad or welded to steel plate

Selling Price: $3,950

