

1. The Commission shall conduct a continuing survey of all areas, places, buildings, structures, or objects in the City which the Commission, on the basis of information available or presented to it has reason to believe are significant to the cultural, social, economic, political or architectural history of the City.
2. The Commission shall continually survey all areas to determine needed and desirable improvements of older buildings throughout the City, acting in a resource and advisory capacity to owners of historically significant sites regarding their preservation, restoration and rehabilitation.
3. The Commission shall work for the continuing education of the citizens of the City with respect to the civil and architectural heritage of the City. It shall keep current a public register of designated and proposed historic preservation sites and areas along with the plans and programs that pertain to them.
4. The Commission may recommend to the Council the acceptance of contributions offered to the City, and to assist the City staff in preparation of applications for grant funds to be made through the City for the purposes of the historic preservation.
5. The Commission will, on a continuing basis, collect and review City planning and development records, documents, studies, models, maps, plans and drawings to be passed onto the State Historical Society as a permanent record of City history and development.
6. The Commission shall make no application to the National Registrar of Historic Places or to the State of Minnesota for the designation of a historic site or district without the consent of the Council.

SECTION 212.02. COMPENSATION FOR COMMISSIONS AND SUBCOMMITTEES.

Subd. 1. Official Commission Member Status.

- A For those commissions which meet less frequently than once per month, only those members of a commission who attend at least 75% of all general and special meetings held by a commission or subcommittee within a consecutive 12 month period shall be classified as official members.
- B. For those commissions which meet once per month or more frequently, and for the City Planning Commission, only those members who attend at least 75% of all general and special meetings held by the commission within a consecutive 6 month period of time shall be classified as official commission members.

- C. Any commission member removed from such body by the Council shall not hold official member status for the year in which the member is removed.
- D. Council Members serving on the Delano Water, Light and Power Commission shall be deemed official members of the Delano Water, Light and Power Commission regardless of the attendance requirements in this Section.

Subd. 2. Other Commissions. Unless otherwise provided by statute or this Code, the salary of each official commission member appointed under Chapter 2 of the City Code shall be as follows:

- 1. Each official commission member on a commission which meets once per month or more frequently shall receive a salary of $150.00 per year.
- 2. Each official commission member on a commission which meets less frequently than once per month shall receive a salary of $50.00 per year.

Subd. 3. Water, Light and Power Commission. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subd 2, the salary of each Water, Light and Power Commission member appointed pursuant to Minn. Stat. §412.341 and to Delano City Code Section 205.01 shall be as follows:

- 1. $100 per month plus $50 for every general, special and emergency commission meeting attended during the calendar year.
- 2. $200 per day of attendance at the following meetings upon Commission approval (but only in the event that the meeting day occurs on a day which the Commission member was regularly scheduled to work in his or her employment):
  - a. Meetings of the Minnesota Municipal Utilities Association;
  - b. Meetings of the Central Minnesota Municipal Power Agency;
  - c. Such other Commission-related meetings for which the Council authorizes attendance prior to the meeting.

SECTION 213.01. INDEMNIFICATION.

To the extent required by state law, the City will defend and indemnify its officers and/or employees against a claim resulting from the performance of their official duties. Any judgment or settlement for a cost, disbursement, or award of attorneys' fees in favor of the officer or employee, to which this defense or indemnification obligation applies, will be assigned to the City. This indemnification does not apply in cases of intentional torts, malfeasance in office, or willful or wanton conduct. In those cases, the Council may indemnify the officer and/or employee if it finds this to be in the public interest. Indemnification under this paragraph is subject to the liability limits proposed by Minn. Stat. § 466.04 and any other relevant laws.
